

Introduction

BOM Drop, short for "Bill of Materials Drop," refers to a process in manufacturing where a company encounters a sudden change or drop in the availability of essential components listed in its bill of materials.

Business process

This occurrence can impact production schedules, leading to potential delays and challenges in maintaining a steady workflow. Effectively managing a BOM Drop involves swift identification of alternative suppliers or solutions, adjusting production plans accordingly, and ensuring minimal disruptions to meet production timelines.

Revision #4

Created Fri, Jan 12, 2024 4:11 PM by Venkatesh

Updated Fri, Jan 12, 2024 4:19 PM by Venkatesh