

Introduction

The creation of specific document types plays a pivotal role in ensuring clarity, standardization, and efficiency. The establishment of a Document Type for Manufacturing serves as a structured framework for categorizing and managing various documents integral to the production lifecycle.

Business process

Production orders are now systematically classified, ensuring easy retrieval and tracking throughout the production lifecycle. Work instructions and quality control documents are linked directly to manufacturing processes, providing operators with clear guidance and fostering adherence to standardized procedures.

Revision #3

Created Thu, Jan 18, 2024 12:59 PM by Venkatesh

Updated Thu, Jan 18, 2024 1:08 PM by Venkatesh