Generate Process Instance

Introduction

The Process Initiation Form, a vital tool for seamlessly launching key business processes within our organization. This user-friendly interface empowers users to kickstart various workflows with precision and efficiency. Before initiating a process

Business process

In a growing manufacturing company, the "companies functionality is pivotal in streamlining the approval workflow for purchase orders. The organization regularly procures raw materials and services to support production demands.

Process - Generate Process Instance

Do you want to start the Process?

Organization*	Manufacturing Discrete ▼
Date Start*	19/01/2024 📅
Business Process Header*	Shree Rapid technologies ▼
Name
Description
	☐ Run as Job

Saved Parameters [_____ ▼] 💾 🗑

✔ OK   ✖ Cancel

Organization : User have to select the organization which they wants to execute the general process instance

Data start :   user have to mention the start date to which the execution will calculate.

Business process header : User have to mention the business process header in this field name : User have to mention the name in this field.

Description : user have to mention the description in this field

while the user click on the "ok" button system will generate the transaction for this.