

Introduction

- Introduction

Introduction

Introduction

In this report system will display the pending inspection details of In process Inspection.

Business Example

In a Manufacturing Industry while processing a component inspection will be carried out. Management needs to track the list of components inspected and the pending status of inspection. This report is helpful to track the pending status of in process inspection.