Introduction

- Introduction

Introduction

Introduction

It's a Window to Configure for Product to search by using Attributes.

Business Example

We can able to sale a particular product by using Product search configuration. By choosing this option we can search the product with the help of attributes.