

Introduction

- Introduction

Introduction

Project management module facilitates the industry in managing the projects, and their details.

Project management includes managing raw material, accounting for requirements, and tracking project status. Every detail relevant to project is stored in records that are kept in project management module of Lighthouse ERP.