

Introduction

- Introduction

Introduction

Overview :

Sales Contract Window is used to maintain the Contract based sales orders for the Particular organization.

Business Case :

In a organization the Sales Contract is used to maintain the contract based orders .

It will used to generate the orders in the schedule or the period based on the requirement for the particular Customer based orders.