Window Introduction

- Introduction

Introduction

Introduction:

If any followup required this window is used and followup activity of the service person can be tracked.

Business Example:

Once the lay men finishes his activities using job card,And still he needs to recheck after several days.The user can set the followup in Job card,And the followup activity can be entered in this window.