

Window Introduction

- Introduction

Introduction

Introduction:

Masters are the containers of the Accounting Data. These are the heads, which will be set once and used in many places such as Accounting Voucher Creation, Reports Generation etc. Data stored in Masters is independent.

Business Example:

Masters are the most important entity to record transactions in tally. The accounting masters primarily consist of Group, Ledger and voucher types.